

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The mission of Girl Scouting is to inspire girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism and service that they may become happy and resourceful citizens; and,

Whereas, Girl Scouting is a value-rooted, people-centered organization whose aim is to build better people and to teach girls responsibility, cooperation, civic pride and respect for self and others; and,

Whereas, Lisa Heffernan has earned the highest award in Girl Scouting, the Girl Scout Gold Award, symbolizing outstanding accomplishments in the areas of leadership, community service, career planning and personal development; and,

Whereas, Lisa has demonstrated leadership skills and acted as a role model to fellow Girl Scouts; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate Lisa's outstanding accomplishments of receiving the Girl Scout Gold Award:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 26, 2006, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds
